Elgin Riverboat Resort d/b/a Grand Victoria Casino is located in Elgin, Illinois. Operations began on October 6, 1994. The Grand Victoria Casino employs approximately 744 people in its riverboat operation. The 80,000 square foot riverboat makes the Grand Victoria Casino one of the most spacious gaming facilities in Illinois. The land-based pavilion houses four (4) restaurants and banquet room. An anchor for Elgin's recreation district, the pavilion offers landscaped bike paths complete with bike racks, air pumps and drinking fountains for cyclists and their pets.

In the construction of its facility, and for any subsequent improvements made to the riverboat and the pavilion, the Grand Victoria Casino has sought to use local and in-state contractors for such projects. Since its opening through December 2014, the Grand Victoria Casino has generated over $2.670 billion dollars in state and local tax revenues.

The Grand Victoria Casino is very proud of the efforts it has taken to achieve and even surpass the economic commitments and philanthropic goals envisioned by the Illinois Riverboat Gambling Act. Through the auspices of the Grand Victoria Foundation ("the Foundation"), the Grand Victoria Casino has pioneered an industry-leading example of pro-actively distributing grants to not-for-profit organizations interested in the betterment of the local economy and community. By channeling these funds back into the area from which it hires a majority of its employees and draws a portion of its patrons, the Grand Victoria Casino has established a long-term and mutually beneficial partnership with Elgin and Kane County.

Since its establishment in October 1996, the Grand Victoria Casino has contributed more than $228 million to the Foundation, more than $6 million to the Kane County Forest Preserve and more than $137 million to Kane County.
