Illinois Gaming Board Publishes Public and Industry Comment on Sports Wagering Act

CHICAGO – The Illinois Gaming Board (“IGB”), sought input from the public, the sports wagering industry, and other stakeholders regarding proposed rules and other comments relevant to the Illinois Sports Wagering Act rulemaking process over a 30 day period beginning on August 27, 2019 and ending on September 27, 2019.

“The purpose of the sports wagering public comment process was to afford all stakeholders – industry, the general public and others – a meaningful, independent, transparent, and equal opportunity to share with the IGB their views about proposed rules and other matters related to the implementation, regulation and administration of sports wagering in Illinois,” said IGB Administrator Marcus Fruchter. “The IGB is reviewing all submissions and will use these comments, where appropriate, to inform our sports betting rules, procedures and policies.”

All of the sports wagering comments submitted to the IGB are available on the IGB website. The comments in their entirety can be found under the Sports Wagering FAQs.
