7. Whether an applicant or licensee has filed, or been served with a complaint or other notice filed with any public body, regarding the delinquency in payment of, or a dispute over the filings concerning the payment of, any tax required under federal, State or local law, including the amount, type of tax, the taxing agency and time periods involved.

Alton Casino, LLC is currently in dispute of IRS notification CP504B for the tax period December 31, 2013 for supposed unpaid Employer's Annual Federal Tax in the amount of $4,875,807.88. We have received notice from the IRS indicating our taxes were unpaid for this period. Alton uses a third party payroll processor who is responsible for filing all payroll related tax documents and payments.

At the time of this occurrence, Penn National was in the process of completing the REIT spinoff. Alton obtained a new EIN as a result of the spin off. The third party payroll processor filed the tax payment under Alton's previous EIN causing the discrepancy. We have been in contact with the third party payroll processor and the IRS attempting to resolve this issue.

Further, Alton Casino, LLC is currently in dispute of IRS notification CP134B for the tax period December 31, 2013 for supposed unpaid Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax in the amount of $1,276,265.92. We have received notice from the IRS indicating our taxes were unpaid for this period.
